This unusual 'dolls' house is located in a pretty residential street in the heart of Chelsea. The house is on 4 floors, with one room on each floor. A very easy and attractive spiral staircase connects all the floors. On the ground floor is the sitting room with sofa, armchairs, flat screen TV and is very light and bright with windows on both sides. The stairs lead down to the well fitted kitchen with oven, hob (stove top), fridge, washing machine. The kitchen leads into the open plan dining area seating 4/6. A guest cloakroom with loo and wash hand basin is also on this floor. The bedroom is on the first floor with queen-size (5') double bed and good cupboards. The bathroom is on the top floor with a beautifully fitted Victorian style claw foot bath and hand shower, wash hand basin and loo. This delightful and comfortable house is light and bright and furnished in contemporary style. The house, unusual even for London is situated in a small backwater street with colourfully painted houses. It is moments away from the buzz of the trendy Kings Road with all its many boutiques, pubs and restaurants. Sloane Square station is a 10 minute walk away. This is a Non Smoking House.
