The apartment is an "open space" of approximately 55 mq. and can accommodate up to 4 people. The apartment is located on the 1st floor of an ancient palace (1400) that has endured several renovations throughout the centuries, up to the most recent one concluded in May 2005. The apartment has been decorated and furnished with good taste and refinement, in order to offer a relaxing and comfortable atmosphere. The original style has been maintained, for example, leaving the beams visible, consonant with the original architecture.

The position is right in the historical centre, in the prestigious Via Del Tritone. The apartment has a beautiful view and it is absolutely quiet (all the windows have double glasses). The area where the apartment is located, is one of the most prestigious and aimed of the city: equidistant from the Trevi Fountain and the Spanish Steps, and just few steps away from the famous Via Veneto and Piazza Barberini. This area is one of the most favourite by those who love a "cultural walk" or simply enjoy shopping. The famous Italian and international "griffe" together with many renowned restaurants and canteens can be found in this area. The underground (Linea A, Barberini Stop) is very close, the nearest taxi station is in Piazza Barberini and the several buses, will help our guests to reach any place across the city.
