

VATULELE ISLAND RESORT

Barefoot Chic Private Island Hideaway

Vatulele Island faces directly on to the South Pacific Ocean and is protected by a magnificent barrier reef that forms an extensive crystal blue snorkelling lagoon in front of Vatulele Island Resort which boasts some of the best beaches in Fiji.

Just steps from the beach are 18 gorgeous bures decorated with Fijian art and local timber furnishings to reflect the tropical ambiance of the island. The style is Santé Fe meets Fiji. Open plan bures, each with an expansive terrace, inviting living area and oversized bathroom are dominated by an irresistible king bed. In addition, six bures offer a fresh water infinity pool at the end of their terrace.

At either end of the resort's main beach are oversized villas, the largest being "The Point". With two private pools it sprawls over two floors and has a demanding panoramic views of the resorts lagoon. Guests are attended by their own personal butler trained to anticipate your every need. "Vale Viqi" the grand honeymoon bure, offers the most private location with generous living spaces; a court yard, living room, two indoor-showers, private dining area and pool.

Vatulele guests are offered the opportunity to enjoy good food and a wine cellar of first-class vintages to accompany meals. Dine on the terrace outside the central pavilion overlooking the shimmering lagoon, in the restaurant or privately in-villa. In the evening the outdoor atmosphere is sultry and romantic with stars and candlelight and soft lanterns completing the scene.

The active may wish to kayak to the limestone cliffs, take a jungle hike to see ancient petro glyphs, underground caves and an excursion to a local village or visit Fijian sacred sites, all which enhance the island's mystique. Excellent Scuba diving sites award Vatulele the accolade of being the only five-star island resort in Fiji with a PADI Golden Palm dive facility.

Romantics will want to be whisked away to Vatulele's very own deserted private island, a piece of South Pacific paradise for snorkelling and lazing in the sun accompanied by a picnic hamper and your favourite chilled refreshments.

The serene and sensual setting of Vatulele Island Resort is perfect for the celebration of significant occasions and to provide everlasting memories.
