

Weddings in Tahiti, Bora Bora & Moorea

Why only HONEYMOON in TAHITI when you can get MARRIED there also!

You may have heard about it and were waiting for the details!

It is with greatest pleasure and excitement that we inform you it is now possible to organise Legal Wedding Ceremonies in Tahiti and Her Islands. This means you no longer need to dream about getting married on the white sandy beaches of Moorea or in an Overwater chapel in Bora Bora. Turn the dream into reality.

Long recognised as one of the most romantic honeymoon destinations in the world, overseas visitors will also now be able to get married in French Polynesia after the French government gave the green light for foreign marriages to be conducted in Tahiti and her islands. Legally binding marriages can be carried out on the islands of Tahiti, Bora Bora and Moorea.

The minimum 30-day residence criteria has been done away with under the new legislation meaning visitors will be able to get married in a romantic Tahitian ceremony as long as they also go through a civil ceremony which must be conducted at a local city hall. Previously visitors could only undergo a symbolic French Polynesian marriage or a renewal of wedding vows legally exchanged elsewhere.
